Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Examiner maintains that Guheen's "comparison system", combined with Shaya's "product recommendations", which is rendered in a text form, reads on applicant's claim language of rendering results (fluent text) of a comparison guide as claimed in applicant's claim language. Further applicant uses the term "Natural Language" in the preamble of the claim but refers to "Nautral Language" as "Fluent text" in the body of the claim; however, examiner does not find the link between fluent text and Natural Language in the specification and therefore the weight given to "Natural Language" is not significantt..
